CSP JOINT LAUNCHES · POSITIONING · TECHNICAL CONTENT · CUSTOMER SUCCESS

Product marketing and technical storytelling leader with 18+ years across Microsoft and Microsoft-vendor roles. Turns complex cloud, AI, infrastructure, and security capabilities into value propositions, launch plans, partner messaging, seller enablement, customer proof, and executive presentations. Brings direct Microsoft/Azure ecosystem experience plus working fluency in NVIDIA's full-stack accelerated computing story, from GPU-accelerated cloud infrastructure to enterprise AI software.

EXPERIENCE

THE PEERLESS GROUP

Jun 2025 - Present

Sr Consultant | AI Strategy, Product Storytelling & GTM Enablement

- Translate customer research, product requirements, and market signals into buyer journeys, positioning frameworks, and GTM-ready experiences for AI, cloud, and emerging-tech initiatives.
- Partner with product, sales, marketing, engineering, and leadership teams to connect models, software, infrastructure, and business outcomes into a single story for each audience.
- Use AI tools to speed up research synthesis, competitive analysis, content drafting, and reusable workflows without sacrificing accuracy or executive quality.
- Manage ambiguous, high-expectation work independently from discovery through delivery, producing strategic briefs, proposals, presentations, playbooks, and clear recommendations on tight timelines.

MICROSOFT

Apr 2023 - Jul 2025

Product Strategy & Experience Lead | Cloud & AI Launch Enablement

- Designed an internal product-launch and communication-enablement experience for enterprise and federal offerings that cut launch and proposal cycle time by about 25%.
- Built positioning and message architecture that connected Azure, AI, cloud infrastructure, and security capabilities to customer needs, procurement drivers, and sales execution.
- Partnered with product, engineering, sales, and solution teams to align launch narratives, keep content technically accurate, and deliver consistent field-ready materials.
- Created executive presentations, storyboards, launch guidance, and reusable communication frameworks adopted by sales, solution, and customer-facing teams.

Aug 2019 - Mar 2023

Senior Marketing Communications Manager

- Developed product messaging, demos, executive decks, speaking narratives, and GTM content for large-scale Azure, cloud, and AI initiatives.
- Converted customer discovery and market signals into differentiated value stories, adoption roadmaps, and multimillion-dollar expansion opportunities.
- Built customer narratives for Walmart, Sam's Club, Walgreens Boots Alliance, and PepsiCo covering Azure OpenAI search, automation, digital care, and seller onboarding.

SELECTED CLOUD & CUSTOMER PROOF

Walmart

Helped shape an early Azure OpenAI demonstration and search narrative, connecting generative AI to a practical enterprise-retail scenario and clear customer value.

Sam's Club

Designed a 2.5-day executive workshop using Design Thinking and Jobs-to-be-Done to turn business priorities into actionable cloud & AI use cases and an adoption roadmap.

Walgreens Boots Alliance

Turned pharmacist automation, digital-care, and operational-improvement concepts into executive messaging focused on productivity, experience, and outcomes.

PepsiCo

Shaped the story for a North America seller-onboarding agent, connecting AI capabilities to practical adoption and business value for customer stakeholders.
